

Suggested Readings for Mississauga Lifelong Learning series, “Ethics and Politics: Oxymoron or Necessity” by Ian Greene (igreene@yorku.ca)

Ian Greene & David Shugarman, Honest Politics Now

Kenneth Kernaghan and John Langford, The Responsible Public Servant

A.C. Grayling, Towards the Light

Maureen Mancuso et al., A Question of Ethics

Sisella Bok, Lying: Moral Choice in Public and Private Life

John Swatsky, The Insiders

Philip Slayton, Lawyers Gone Bad, and Mayors Gone Bad

Brandy Lee, The Dangerous Case of Donald Trump

Barbara Coloroso, The Bully, The Bullied, and The Bystander

Lawrence Cockcroft, Global Corruption

Jeffrey Simpson, Spoils of Power

Stevie Cameron, On the Take

Society of Ontario Regulators and Adjudicators (SOAR): <https://soar.on.ca/>

Canada, Office of the Conflict of Interest and Ethics Commissioner:

<https://ciec-ccie.parl.gc.ca/en/Pages/default.aspx>

Canada, Office of the Senate Ethics Officer:

<http://sen.parl.gc.ca/seo-cse/eng/Home-e.html>

Canada, Office of the Commissioner of Lobbying: <https://lobbycanada.gc.ca/en/>

Canada, Office of the Public Sector Integrity Commissioner: <https://psic-ispc.gc.ca/>

Office of the Ontario Integrity Commissioner: <http://www.oico.on.ca/>

City of Mississauga Office of the Integrity Commissioner:

<https://www.mississauga.ca/council/integrity-commissioner/>

Jean Fournier, “Strengthening Parliamentary Ethics: A Canadian Perspective”:

<http://sen.parl.gc.ca/seo-cse/PDF/BrisbaneSpeech-e.pdf>