

LIFELONG LEARNING MISSISSAUGA

SPRING SPEAKERS SERIES 2013

Tuesdays, April 9 to May 28, 2013, 10:00 am to 12:00 noon

Mississauga Valley Community Centre
1275 Mississauga Valley Blvd, Mississauga, ON, L5A 3R8

- April 9 Famous People of Peel
Earl Fee, author of Living to be One Hundred, talks about his life and the key to a long healthy life. He broke 56 world records and holds 34 Canadian records in track and field.
- April 16 The Greening of Mississauga
David Culham, former Councillor of Mississauga recounts the development of the City's recycling program, one of the first in Ontario, and his role in the creation of public spaces.
- April 23 Life in Politics
Mississauga Councillor Bonnie Crombie talks about municipal politics.
- April 30 Financial Security and Retirement
Andrew W. Ellis, Financial Advisor, provides a helpful presentation for those considering retirement or already retired.
- May 7 Over 200 Years of History: In the Footsteps of the Mississaugas
Matthew Wilkinson, Chief Historian for the City of Mississauga, tells us the story of the native Mississaugas, the Treaty Period, and relocation in 1847.
- May 14 The Rise and Fall of Civilization - 7000 Years of Failure
Dr. Anthony Davis, Professor of Geography, University of Toronto, talks about how the past offers us important lessons, but we seldom heed them.
- May 21 Creating Accessible Communities in Mississauga
Rabia Khader, Chair of the City of Mississauga Accessibility Advisory Committee, discusses how to create inclusive and accessible places and spaces in our communities to ensure everyone belongs.
- May 28 Global Economic Crisis
David Olive, Economist, Toronto Star, talks about the world's ongoing financial challenges and some possible solutions that may bring stability to world markets.

Registration fee: $40 per person per series

For more information or to register, go to www.lifelong-learning-mississauga.com or phone 647-300-4878